Wedding Party Woes

By Maxine Greco

Choosing gifts for the wedding attendants who are serving as bridesmaids and ushers at your wedding is always a chore. It can be especially difficult with the size of wedding parties today. Personalized gifts always fit the bill. They make a lasting impression when you go to the trouble to monogram or engrave something especially for the recipient. Personalizing always makes you feel special.

Some suggestions for ushers are money clips, key chains, Swiss army knives, leather shave kits, leather wallets, small travel duffels, pocket knives, leather or wood valets for a man's dresser, watch boxes, and pens. Of course, there are always the ever popular flasks and cigar accessories. Some other suggestions are lighters, business card cases, journals, binoculars, travel clocks, and portfolios. All of these gifts lend themselves beautifully to monogramming or engraving.

For the ladies there are jewel boxes, trinket boxes, clocks, manicure cases, pens, agendas, frames or albums, key chains and business card cases. If you are thinking of earrings or another type of jewelry, it can always be presented in a personalized jewel or trinket box.

You will also have a maid of honor and a best man. Their gifts can be chosen in the same vein as your purchase for the ushers and the bridesmaids. Generally, you spend a little more for their gift because they are a very close relative or friend. They are also the person who assists you throughout the wedding and will usually host a shower and a bachelor party. You can get them the same gift as the others in your wedding party, just add something else to the gift to indicate that they are special. You can also purchase in the same category, just a more expensive version.

Often, gifts are also chosen for the parents of the bride and groom. Personalized clocks are a special remembrance of your appreciation of all they have done for you. Another nice thought is to make up albums for the grandparents and great grandparents. You can purchase a simple leather album and have that personalized. Then you can fill it with proofs or photos your friends have taken at the affair. It tells them that you are thinking of them and that they are also special to you.

And last but not least, remember each other. Nothing says "you are my very special someone" as presenting them with a gift on the day of the wedding. It shows you were a thinking of them and will be a nice surprise.

Important Steps In Your Wedding Program

By Ken Donald

You have probably heard of others who have used one. A wedding program. Do you really need one to manage your upcoming wedding? It all depends on how big a wedding you are planning. A regular wedding has thousands of things and stuff who needs to be taken care of on the right moment. If each thing is not done at the proper time and place, the whole wedding can get side tracked and course a lot of trouble.

You need to take care of wedding invitations in good time before the wedding. The invitation of your guests is very important to get done early in your preparations. Things like wedding flowers for decoration, the wedding dress for the bride, ordering a wedding band perhaps, etc.. The list goes on and on. Planning your wedding can be difficult on a piece of paper. You really need a plan where every aspect has been thought of.

You also have to think about wedding favors, wedding rings and wedding accessories. Not to forget your honeymoon? Where should you go on this special occasion?

You have to think ahead. Try a search on the internet for wedding programs. You can find information in abundance. It is all out there on the internet online: wedding music, wedding photographers, wedding ideas and wedding cakes, etc.

With the wedding process written down on paper step by step, you are in control of the situation. And you know that you can relax and even enjoy the process from beginning of planning and all the way to your grand wedding day.

If your budget is a bit tight and your wedding program must save money where it is possible, you can make your own wedding invitations, and perhaps you know someone who can make the wedding flowers for example. The wedding party could be held at a less expensive place. The great thing about doing many things yourself is the personal touch you wedding will get. Great idea for creative people.

A wedding program is the most important step to stay on track from start to finish. Planning a wedding is no easy task to manage. Get a wedding program, and make that special wedding day perfect.

Thank you for your time.
