What Should I Do About My Boring Home Decor?

By Michelle Winters

Everyone runs into the same problem at least once in their lives. You move into a brand new home and everything is painted white. The walls are white, the carpets are white, EVERYTHING is white. When confronted with so much empty space and non-existent color, most people freeze like a deer in the headlights. Most of us get so overwhelmed with the enormity of the task before us, that we change very little and the decor stays looking bland and boring. It is easy, so try not to be daunted by the white space. And if you are...

That's ok...think of it as a fresh start. Think of the possibilities for your new home. You can pick out all new colors, furniture, bedding, etc. You also get to pick out brand new decorations. Try something new in your brand new home. Instead of boring posters or art prints, why not a tapestries? Soft home furnishings bring an air of sophistication and elegance to your wall decor, that you just cannot achieve with posters.

You can find numerous styles and sizes of wall hangings at online wall tapestry stores. You can even find tapestry tote bags, tapestry bedding like this:

other home decor accents. When choosing a tapestry you need to keep a few things in mind. First, look at your newly furnished room and find the most prominent wall. This is usually the wall you see when you walk into the room. Now, consider what other wall decor you already have and think what style might work with it. Then, think about the shades of color in that room. Are they mostly darker shades, lighter shades or neutral shades? This part is important because you need to match the overall color with the color in your room.

Keeping those colors in mind, browse through some tapestries. You will probably see some right off the bat that match at least one of the colors in the room. If you cannot find any that match the colors you need, try to find a tapestry that is a shade or two lighter or darker. Also, do not choose a wall tapestry with prominent color that matches your wall color. The wall hangings will blend in with your wall and will do little to create unique home decor.

What Style Tapestry Should I Buy?

By Richard Pace

If you are starting from a totally clean slate, you can create just about any style of home decor that you desire. But, what should you do? Many interior designers suggest finding an object that you find beautiful and building your decor around that object. If you cannot find something that you like enough to decorate around, why not consider tapestries?

Wall tapestries are available in so many different styles and sizes...you cannot go wrong. So, how are you supposed to pick one out that will make you and your decor happy? Easy! Just browse through some tapestry wall hangings and get a feel for what styles you like and do not like.

If you find that you like all of the ones you see, you can try to break down your favorites into groups. From those groups you can decide on what wall tapestry fits what style and what you like the absolute best. For example, people who like cityscape home accent furnishings tend to enjoy more traditional styles of rustic home decor. Others who love gazing at medieval tapestries tend to enjoy gothic decor more than anything else. There are others still who find beauty in floral tapestries and prefer unique home decor for their Victorian style home.

Many people are revisiting the ages of great artists, such as Degas and Van Gogh:

. Though such lovely artwork blends well in most styles of home decor, it tends to work the best in contemporary home decor. You can find home decor accents by many famous artists, no matter what style you desire. If you have a huge amount of space available for hanging your tapestry, you may want to consider large wall tapestries. They fill in large areas beautifully, and you will not have to worry about wall paper ever again!
