Why Rent An Arizona Limousine Or Arizona Charter Bus

By Night Life Limo Bus

There are so many reasons why it makes sense to rent an Arizona limousine that you really should be asking yourself, "Why not rent an Arizona limousine?" Arranging for an Arizona limo is a great way to make a grand entrance, that's for sure. But there's more.

People don't always think about Arizona limousine rentals when they need to move a large group of people from one place to another. It's traditionally the brides who choose this type of transportation. Arranging an Arizona limousine on their wedding days is as much about "the look" as it is about being practical.

Considering that today's typical bridal party averages 6 - 7 gorgeous women dressed to the nine's, plus the bride and her parents, arriving at the wedding in a limo makes a lot of sense. There's plenty of room to move around so there's no need to worry about the hair or the outfits getting messed up. And there's typically a well-stocked bar inside just in case the girls need to relax a bit.

Who else contracts Arizona limousine services?

Anyone who can afford to and who wants to arrive in style, that's who. Arranging an Arizona limousine to meet out-of-town travelers - whether they're arriving for business or for pleasure - is far more convenient than dealing with the hassles that are almost certain to crop up. Who has time to sit in traffic or to look for some place to park while awaiting the plane's arrival? And now that airport security measures are so tight, if you don't need to be at there, then you really shouldn't be.

Arranging an Arizona limo to greet your guests or business associates will save so much time, but it's also a very nice gesture. You can be sure that not many people will decline an opportunity to be picked up in Arizona limo!

And of course, limousines aren't always for fun. Arranging for an Arizona limousine rental is an efficient way of transporting friends and family during times of mourning. When you've got a lot of people arriving from out of town to attend funeral services, renting a limousine will be so easy to coordinate. It'll be a welcome relief especially when you consider how many other tasks need to be coordinated during this sad time.

Choosing Between an Arizona Limousine or Arizona Charter Bus

For larger gatherings, it probably makes more sense to arrange an Arizona charter bus. A charter bus is the perfect solution for transporting students to school-sponsored events. Nowadays, more and more parents are pooling their money to rent Arizona party busses to take their driving-aged children to and from the Homecoming Dance, or Prom Night or the Senior Dance. They know their kids might indulge in a few illegal activities during these special times and they know that an Arizona charter bus is one way of ensuring that their children won't be driving while under the influence.

Next time you need to transport a gathering, large or small, take a few moments to check whether renting an Arizona charter bus or an Arizona limousine make sense.

Arizona Charter Bus Rental Tips

By Night Life Limo Bus

An Arizona charter bus is a practical way to move a large group around. Those onboard the charter bus will be able to relax, see the sights, and converse with one another or they can spend their time alone, reading a book, watching movies, or even sleeping. If you've got to get a large group from point A to point B, and you want to do so economically and comfortably, you should consider reserving an Arizona charter bus.

Here are some tips that can help when you're looking to rent an Arizona charter bus for your group's travel.

Safety First

Once you start searching for Arizona charter bus companies, you'll see that there are many to choose from. One way to help narrow down your choices is to dig a bit deeper into the charter bus company's driving history. Even though traveling by bus is safer than flying or driving, that doesn't mean all charter bus companies put safety first. Before making a reservation with an Arizona charter bus company, ask how often the company maintains its fleet and whether maintenance is handled by the charter bus company directly or whether it's contracted out.

You can always Google the Arizona charter bus company history. Search for information about past accidents, driver citations, and safety violations. The Department of Transportation has strict guidelines governing the number of hours bus drivers can operate a bus without a break, about drug testing and physical examination schedules, about keeping logs and other important safety issues. It's fully within your right to ask about these types of issues.

Plan ahead

The sooner you have the details of your trip coordinated, the better. It's always a good idea to reserve an Arizona charter bus as far in advance as possible. Knowing the travel dates, destinations, and the number of people traveling will help ensure you end up with a charter bus that meets your group's needs.

Review the fleet

As you contact each Arizona charter bus rental agency, ask what types of busses are available. In addition to the deluxe motor coach type, you might be able to choose a double decker bus, a mini bus, an executive coach or Arizona limousine style bus, a van, and possibly even a bus with sleeping compartments!

Scrutinize the quotation

Arizona charter bus companies typically charge either by the hour or by the mile. Make sure you understand which you're being quoted so there won't be any surprises later on. It's also a good idea to ask whether or not the price includes tolls or other trip-related expenses. You definitely want to also know if the bus driver's gratuity is included in the quote. On average, a bus driver's gratuity should be about 10% of the bill and that extra money becomes their incentive to provide an enjoyable ride.

Ask about back-up transportation

Hopefully it won't be an issue, but you definitely want to find out what will happen to your group should the Arizona charter bus you reserve experience mechanical trouble during your trip.
