

Would You Deny Him?

This Free E-Book is brought to you by Natural-Aging.com.

100% Effective Natural Hormone Treatment
Menopause, Andropause And Other Hormone Imbalances
Impair Healthy Healing In People Over The Age Of 30!

Would You Deny Him?

By Joyce C. Lock

Would You Deny Him? by Joyce C. Lock

If someone came to your church, claiming to be called to build churches both spiritually and numerically (offering no special programs or gimmicks); you could see it their heart's desire, the Holy Spirit compelling them (I Jn. 5:6b), and every step of instruction was scriptural ... would you receive them?

If a prophet came to your front door, with glorious visions for your future and they, not only proclaimed God's message with the veil of the Old Testament removed but, was willing to be the person in the forefront; going through all the fires and floods to show you how (fulfilling scriptural evidence that their gift was real) ... could you believe them (Is. 49:4, 7)?

If someone could interpret the misunderstood writings of Paul, to guide you into the experimental administration; where Jesus is truly the head of the church ... would you still want more proof (II Co. 13:3)?

If God rose up murders, adulterers, terrorist, and such to places of special service (as He did the great men of old) ... would you be like the Pharisees, requiring signs from Heaven (when they had already been provided in the scriptures)? Or, would you be like the Greeks, relying on your own wisdom; with a hundred reasons why God's Word does not count for today (I Co. 1:22)?

God keeps His Word in that He will never walk over the heart of man to accomplish His purpose. No apostle, no prophet, no Savior, no calling has any power with man; except they first be received by faith (II Co. 1:24).

If you want to see the works of Jesus, the power of Jesus, and the truth of Jesus in their lives one, first, has to believe they are a messenger of the Lord (Mt. 23:39); and faith without works is dead.

For every action contained in the scriptures, there is a reaction. First, 'trust' God (believe Him), 'try' Him (take the step of faith), and then God will 'prove' He is who He says He is.

Would You Deny Him?

Might we also require proof of Jesus, causing Him great sorrow, and risk forfeiture of our blessings (Mk. 8:11)? Or, could we accept the proof already provided in the scriptures and reap its reward?

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me."

John 13:20

© by Joyce C. Lock

<http://my.homewithgod.com/blessingsandlessons/>

This writing may be used in its entirety, with credits in tact, for non-profit ministering purposes.

Joyce C. Lock is a published author, poet, and columnist. In addition, she founded and maintains the email ministries "Heavenly Inspirations" <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/HeavenlyInspirations/> and "Share a Smile" <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/smilesharing/>. Joyce's writings encourage us in our relationship with God and each other.

How To Avoid Getting A Speeding Ticket

By Jackson Jones

When you're driving on a highway, remember to stay within a group of other cars. This makes it much more difficult for a police officer to pick you off, as you aren't speeding in front of everyone.

Be aware of your surroundings. Remember to scan the road ahead of you, looking for any places where a police officer could be hiding.

Make sure you know the speed limit of the area you're driving in. Keep a look out for any traffic signs that tell you the current speed limit.

Always keep your car in good condition. For example, if you have a tail light out, you are going to be noticed much easier by a police officer, as they are looking out for these kinds of things. Make sure you spend the few dollars it costs to keep your car in good repair.

If you do get stopped by a police officer, always be polite. If you are rude in any way they will have something else against you. Also, try not to volunteer too much information. Obviously you have to answer his questions, but don't add to much...just answer the question.

The first question the police officer will most likely ask you is if you know why you have been stopped. At this point, you have three options to choose from.

Firstly, you can completely admit that you were speeding. The officer would appreciate this, as this is what he wants. The officer may let you off with just a warning.

Would You Deny Him?

The down side to answering in this way is that if you're given a speeding ticket, and admitted that you were speeding then it can and will be used against you in the court. The police officer will be taking notes on everything you say to him, so if you feel that you will definitely get a speeding ticket then you should avoid directly admit to the police officer that you were speeding.

The second option you have is to deny that you were speeding. Keep in mind that this approach is going to create some tension between you and the police officer. If you don't have a good argument to prove to the police officer that you weren't speeding, he will still give you a ticket.

The upside to this, however, is if you deny speeding, you have a better chance of beating the ticket when it goes to court, because you denied speeding from the outset.

The third option you have is to neither admit nor deny the fact you were speeding. Often this approach will work best. When you are stopped and asked if you know why you were stopped act as if you don't know why. When he tells you that you were speeding, tell the officer in a calm and respectful force that you just didn't notice...and give a plausible excuse.

Find out more on how to beat your speeding ticket at the following site:

<http://beat-speeding--ticket.blogspot.com>

blog.

Press Release E-Manual

Would You Deny Him?

This Free E-Book has been brought to you by Natural-Aging.com.

100% Effective Natural Hormone Treatment
Menopause, Andropause And Other Hormone Imbalances
Impair Healthy Healing In People Over The Age Of 30!