Yoda Speaks! 5 Success Secrets of the Master Jedi

Yoda Speaks! 5 Success Secrets of the Master Jedi by Donna Monday

We all know that Yoda (from Star Wars) is a great teacher of Jedi warriors, but Yoda's wisdom can also help aspiring online marketers. Below are five of his most powerful teachings:

"A Jedi's strength flow from the force."

– Where does your strength come from?

Yoda is saying there's a force, a spiritual power, deep within us that if tapped into will give us the strength to tackle any situation that comes along. He knows that we are part of a larger force that's connected to the universe. We don't have to rely on our own physical and mental abilities only.

Sometimes there's nothing like having an extra source of strength to guide us when we feel we can't move one step further towards our goal. This inner force is what can help push us over the top and on to victory.

"A Jedi must have the deepest commitment, the most serious mind."

– How committed are you to your goals?

You've signed up for several good (legitimate) affiliate programs but you're frustrated. It's been two months and you haven't made any money yet.

So, what do you do? You abandon them and look for something more lucrative.

While you jump from program to program, have you ever thought about why you weren't successful with the last one? Why are others making money with programs you've abandoned?

Yoda knows that we must make a serious commitment to our goals (in this case: making money with an affiliate program) and stick to it.

By giving up too soon and not committing yourself to success, you ensure your own failure.

"Size matters not."

– Don't be afraid of starting out small

Yoda is physically very small, yet his inner strength and wisdom is enormous. When Yoda calls on the force you can imagine how much energy must be going through that small body. Yet, he is able to control it and make it work for him.

Size doesn't matter when you've got the hidden force of intelligence, agility, enthusiasm, and determination on your side.

So don't worry about starting out small with few resources. That will not determine your success. Your belief in yourself will.

"The dark side is quicker, easier, more seductive"

What is the dark side of online marketing?

– MLM scams, pyramid schemes, get rich quick opportunities, SPAM

Yoda knows that we are easily lured and tempted by offers from the dark side.

Who of us has not been tempted by the idea of easy wealth and more freedom to enjoy our lives, while lazily sitting around and doing nothing of value to earn it?

Beware of the dark side. It will lead you to a life of empty promises and even emptier pockets.

"No! Try not . . . Do or do not. There is no try."

– Make up your mind to take action!

You always hear people say, "I'm going to try to do this or that." The word TRY is very wishy-washy. It allows us to have an escape hatch from taking any action.

For Example:

You've got a great idea for a web business that you're really excited about. You've done your research and found it's a perfect little niche area that won't require a lot of start up time or money.

You've talked your idea over with several people and they're all very enthusiastic and can't wait to see it up and running.

You've registered your domain name and found the perfect host for the site. Now all that's left is for you to fill your web pages up with interesting content and your product pictures.

The next day you sit down at your computer and you . . . hesitate.

You're frozen by self-doubt.

Finally, you convince yourself that your idea isn't going to work after all. Oh well, at least you tried . . .

Tried to what? Get started?

Yoda is advising his Jedi to not let the word TRY be a part of their thinking. There is only the action word of: Do

You either DO something all the way or don't do it at all.

May the force be with you.

I'm Not Looking for a Friend, I'm Looking for a Jedi Master

By Susan Dunn

Coaching's been around for about 10 years but there are still lots of people who haven't tried it yet, and don't know what it's about.

Two major confusions in people's minds are:

- What's the difference between coaching and therapy, and;
- What's the difference between coaching and a good friend

Coaching's similar to therapy, except that therapy focuses on your emotions, particularly unresolved ones from the past and defective patterns of thinking and reacting that have developed.

In coaching, we're concerned about feelings – my specialty is emotional intelligence after all – but the focus is on managing them and moving forward. Taking action is what coaching's all about.

Now what's the difference between a coach and a good friend? A lot!

Yoda Speaks! 5 Success Secrets of the Master Jedi

I have friends and I'm also coach, and I help friends, but not at all in the way I work with clients. With friends, it's give and take. There are also set patterns to most relationships. If you go to a friend for advice, first, they aren't trained, so they're likely to tell you what they would do, not explore with you your options and best solutions. Secondly, friends have their own issues and agendas which cloud things.

Coaches are trained to be 100% on your side, and to remain involved but subjective.

You're not looking for a friend, you already have friends. You're looking for a Jedi master – someone with wisdom and experience who can point the way. In fact, someone who will say "Try? There is no try. Do or not do." Coaches motivate!

The best way to find out how coaching is different from either therapy or friendship is to try it! All coaches offer a FREE complimentary sample session. Look up some on the Internet and give it a try.
